Hello everybody my name is Brandon, I am a 3rd year MIS major I transferred from EVC. I am very interested in networking with people. I am very interested in the cybersecurity sector and also the networking field. I am very interested in learning the business side and technology side of the business. A passion of mine is having a home lab for me to tinker around with different operating systems, running my file server, and configuring my network firewall.